Her deep appreciation of anything one for her husband, who is in France, done for her husband, who is in France, is expressed by Mrs. Emily S. Howard, $124 19th street, as follows:

"I have recently returned to this city and am delighted to see and read of the splendid things that are being done for our soldiers and sailors here and everywhere. What a big work The Evening Star has on hand. It is a splendid and noble work and I know the men will more than appreciate your efforts in their behalf.

more than appreciate your efforts in their behalf.

"My husband is now in France and has served fourteen years in the Regular Army before going over to serve his country in this terrible war. I know how very happy it will make him to be remembered by the people of Washington, D. C., and wish to thank you in advance for any efforts on your part to make life better and brighter for him while 'over there.'"

How the spirit of service runs through a family is shown in a letter from Mrs. Floyd Herndon, 1719 14th street northwest, who in enrolling the name of her you who left her home six months ago to light under the colors, says:

"I am the proud mother of one of Uncle Bam's enlisted boys. I am proud to say my mother's father and brother served with the Union boys in '61, and I also had a brother who was a Spanish-American war veteran."

ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 24.—An individual package for every man from this city now in the service of the United States doing war duty is planned as a Christmas gift by the Alexandria Chapter of the Red Cross.

It is the desire of those making the preparations for sending these packages to enlisted men that all contributions intended for both soldiers and sailors be sent to Miss Cora Cochran, 722 King street, not later than December 1. Early in December these packages will be forwarded by the committee, in order that the enlisted men may have a reminder of Christmas.

Miss Cochran expresses hope that all persons who desire to help shall send in their donations at once.

some with rifles, to escort draft, others to act as pickets. In the afternoon our nen are ready and waiting for their somrades of the first convalescent comhany, who, at last arrive. But what a sight it is! In front marches a squad of guards with rifles and another squad
in the rear to guard German soldiers, sur brave lads in field gray, who—as the newspapers relate in such beautiful language—are joyfully going forth to destroy our enemies, inspired by love of the fatherland. The draft is teady.

"The band strikes up a march and the column begins to move. Guards are so aumerous that there is one for every two men. Is it not a scandal that our boys in field gray are led out into the feld to fight and give their lives for the fatherland like criminals to the hangman, or, worse, like cattle to the slaughter?

Kept Out of Town

A dance will be given next Friday evening in the auditorium of the Elks'
Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus.
On this occasion the victrola and hoozier cabinet, which were on exhibition at the autumn festival at the Lyeven Hall will be disposed of.

Twenty-seven additional pints of liquor were found today hidden beneath a rear seat in the big seven-passenger automobile which was abandoned last inght in Alexandria county by a man and woman, and from which Sheriff Howard B. Fields captured 215 pints of liquor. The additional liquor was turned over to Sheriff Fields.

Another diary related how the men of the company refused to obey the orders of their lieutenant and only did so when the captain declared he would have one man in every four shot unless the orders were obeyed. An interesting tribute to the high morale of the Belgians in occupied territory is contained in another diary.

The author, on September 6, wrote:
"Yesterday we had a long discussion with people on whom we are billeted, Belgian refugees. The old mother and the eldest daughter, of twenty-two, had a long debate with Franz and myself about war and peace. It is strange that these people, whose hearth and home the British have shelled to ruin, who have been evacuated by the German military authorities because their lives were in dearers. German military authorities because their lives were in danger and who have had a house allotted to them here are wishing and hoping that the Brit-ish will yet liberate Belgium and be able to drive we Germans out.

They beat out the fire and called Emergency Hospital, but the woman was dead when Dr. Hines arrived in the ambulance.

It is the belief of the police that Mrs. McCarthy ignited a piece of paper from the stove to light an oil lamp and that the paper set fire to the table cloth, the flames spreading to her dress.

Coroner Nevitt was notified and will make an investigation today.

HOTELS AND CLUBS WARNED.

Hotels and clubs that bake their own bread were warned last night by the food administration to apply for li-censes, as required in President Wil-

The warning was issued after reports had come to the administration that managers of many hotels and clubs are not planning to apply for licenses on the theory that they do not manufacture bread "for sale."

TUESDAY DONATION DAY.

The Columbia Hospital for Women announces its Thanksgiving donation day this year will be on Tuesday.

An announcement states: "Donations of all kinds, including groceries, canned goods, vegetables, towels, infants clothing, table linen and money will be appreciated."

An invitation for the inspection of the hospital is given on Tuesday from 10 to 6 o'clock, when a committee will be there to receive visitors.

Truckly Remay work and the twenty-six woman's party pickets, ordered transferred from the District workhouse to the jail after action instituted by them in the United States court for the eastern district of Virginia at Alexandria, Va., were removed to the jail yesterday afternoon in automobiles.

Upon motion of their attorney three of them were released on their personal bonds, on the ground that their physical condition was such that they could not stand imprisonment in the jail. These are Mrs. Eunice Dana Brannan, Mrs. Henry Butterworth and Miss Cora Week, all of New York.

Judge Waddill of Alexandria did not consider the petition alleging cruel treatment at Occoquen, stating that his conclusion in respect to the place of incarceration made it unnecessary to inquire into the pickets' treatment at the work-

NEW YORK, November 24.—The pas veek in the stock market was again gov erned almost entirely by immediate foreign and domestic developments. British offensive in France heartened seniment more than any other event of recent months, but was counterbalanced both by the chaotic conditions in Russia and the increasing complexities confro ing the railroads of this country.

Unity and co-ordination in the future conduct of the war strengthened the foreign exchange market, except Italian remittances, which fell to a point indicating the acute economic disorder prevailing in that country.

In speculative circles there appeared to be a growing recognition of values, especially in industrial shares. This was most evident in the steels, some of which made appreciable gains on the week. The general list closed well above recent minimums, but experienced occasional opposition from professional interests.

five pounds, but the price of standard sections has not yet been considered.

The American International Shipbuilding Corporation has distributed orders for the fabrication of 200,000 tons of steel plates and shapes and is negotiating for 125,000 tons additional. Structural steel orders continue mainly for the government, and fabricators will meet in Washington on Tuesday to consider expediting war business. Large contracts of shell steel are being distributed.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW ORLEANS, November 24.—New high levels again were reached in the cotton market here today, prices being forced upward by heavy buying, caused chiefly by the absence of December tenders, which many traders confidently expocted would appear on this, the first notice day for the incoming spot month. The opening was at the advance and the demand steadily increased as the session progressed. Highest prices were reached toward the end. Contributing bullish influences were the fayorable war reports, fairly large exports for the week, good spot accounts and foreign and domestic dry goods reviews. From the opening the short interest covered freely and helped put prices up on themselves.

NEW YORK, November 24.—The cotton market showed continued or even greater firmness today on a renewal of active trade buying, covering and a broadening outside demand. All deliveries made new high records for the season, with the advance led by December, which sold up to 29.70 or $3.25 per bale above Friday's closing quotation. That delivery closed at 29.67, with the general list closing firm at a net advance of 31 to 62 points.
